Critical Acclaim: 2008 Cabernet Sauvignon

One of Washington's screaming deals. This is unapologetic Cabernet, slightly herbal and full of beetroot, cassis and sage flavors, perfect for a steak. (San Francisco Chronicle, July 2010)

90 Points

Beautifully balanced, this offers the perfect expression of Washington State brightness and a Bordeaux-like herbal component. The tannins are fine and drying, and the wine is polished. Don't look for big fruit here, but for a Euro style, this is a sure bet. (Wine Enthusiast, February 2011)
