

2012 CABERNET FRANC ROSÉ

WALLA WALLA VALLEY

WINEMAKER NOTES:

smells like: cherry blossom, watermelon, wet soil

tastes like: strawberry, pie cherry, tangerine zest

mouthfeel: bright acidity, noticeable minerality, mouthwatering finish drink with: sharp cheese; flaky white fish; roasted vegetables; Thanksgiving dinner!

THE 2012 VINTAGE:

Spring brought us more precipitation than usual, followed by a hot, dry summer. We experienced plenty of warm days without it being overly hot. Since WSU began recording heat units, the 2012 vintage was right on track with a “perfect average.” The wines of this vintage show beautiful characteristics of fruit ripeness while remaining elegant and balanced.
